Eleventh Grade

2016-2017

Frankenstein by Mary Shelley

The Great Gatsby by F. Scott Fitzgerald

- I. Please read the Annotation Guide at apcentral.collegeboard.com and use the guidelines to annotate each novel as you read.
- II. Please select ten passages from the novel (beginning, middle, and end). Carefully copy the passages and include the page numbers.
- III. Please write about each passage in the following manner. Address the importance of the passage as it relates to the book's message, meaning, or theme in a well-written paragraph.

Ask yourself why you chose that particular passage. Consider the following:

- Why does the passage appeal to you?
- Does the author raise intriguing questions or address specific issues?
- Do you agree/disagree with the ideas expressed?
- Is the author's diction powerful? Does it evoke certain emotions from you?
- Does the author expand or challenge your thinking?
- What is the effect of the passage in relation to the book's overall purpose?

Please note that you are not limited to the above list. This assignment is due the first day of class. Please bring your books to class.

Should you have any questions, please text to 256-458-5605.
