

Independent Living Syllabus

Teresa Hibbs

Thibbs@westbrookchristian.org

2018-2019

- Training/Education – schools, certifications, and degrees
- Salary – How much, how often, and differences in states
- Taxes – State, Local, and Federal
- Banking – Checking, Savings, CD's, and retirement planning
- Travel – Means of travel, purchasing power, and vacations
- Nutrition – Food prices
- Lodging – Apartment, home, temporary housing, and down payments
- Home Repairs – Appliance and construction repairs
- Essentials – Insurance, clothing, gas, and electrical
- Budgeting – Incoming and Outgoing salaries

Field Trips

Guest Speakers

Grading: Homework, Classwork, Test, Completion Assignments. Each and every assignment will be worth 100 points. It is very important that students do all assignments whether they are homework, classwork, or only completion of certain task. The students will do a "Trip of a Lifetime" assignment the last two weeks of the year that will count 400 points. This assignment will contain all the information they have learned for the year.